Privacy

At Rust en Vrede we are committed to protecting your privacy and to ensure that your personal information is collected and used properly, lawfully, and transparently. See our full Privacy Policy.

We understand the importance of privacy and security. We are committed to protecting the information we collect from our club members and guarantee that it will only be used for the purposes of providing wine orders and related services as per request.

Return Policy

We guarantee the quality of the wines we produce, and we want you to be completely satisfied with your purchase. If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with your order, contact us on 021 881 3881 or via email via info@rustenvrede.com

We will notify you by email once we've received and processed the return product.

Refund Policy

- We do not offer refunds on any wines once the wine has been dispatched.
- You may return unopened products within 30 days of delivery for a full refund if the return is a result of our error (e.g., you received an incorrect or defective product).
- You should expect to receive your refund within four weeks of giving your package to the return shipper. This time period includes the transit time for us to receive your return from the courier (five to ten working days), the time it takes us to process your return once we receive it (three to five working days), and the time it takes your bank to process our refund request (five to ten working days). But in many cases, you will receive a refund sooner.
